

Call for Papers

The new Editorial Board of ES. Revista de Filología Inglesa is pleased to announce its Call for Submissions for Issue 38 (2017).

ES. Revista de Filología Inglesa, a refereed scientific journal published yearly by the Department of Filología Inglesa at the University of Valladolid, cordially invites submission of original manuscripts, in the form of research articles and book reviews, dealing with all major areas of English Studies, these including Language and Linguistics, Literature and Criticism, History and Culture, Translation Studies, and Philology and Textual Studies.

The journal seeks to recover its initial emphasis on the linguistic, literary, and cultural connections between Spain or Hispanic-America and the English-speaking world, but, as always, welcomes all contributions that are qualitative and critical within the broader scope.

Interested authors should submit their articles or reviews by email to: esreview@fyl.uva.es.

For authors' instructions, please visit: <http://www.estudiosinglese.com/es/es-revista-filologia-inglesa/ent/6/>.

Send your proposals by November 30th, 2016. The expected date of publication is Autumn 2017. Submissions throughout the year will also be welcome.

ES is indexed in MLA International Bibliography, Linguistics and Language Behaviour, IBZ Online, Periodicals Index Online, Latindex-Catálogo, Latindex-Directorio, ISOC-CINDOC, CIRC, MIAR, Dulcinea, SHERPA/RoMEO, and Dialnet.

We look forward to welcoming your submissions.

With best wishes,
