University of Valladolid, Spain

Research in Anglo-American Literature, Culture and Linguistic Conference for Postgraduate and Early-Career Scholars

The Research in Anglo-American Literature, Culture and Linguistic Conference for Postgraduate and Early-Career Scholars aims to provide a forum for postgraduate and postdoctoral researchers working on all aspects of English Studies (literature, cultural studies, language and linguistics). The conference is organised by the University of Valladolid and the University of Salamanca, and is intended to provide opportunities to share developing research projects, and gain feedback in an open and welcoming environment that may enhance the postgraduate research experience in the context of existing Erasmus programs. Participants are welcome to outline the basis of their research and present well-developed “works in progress”. We hope to create a stable and fruitful network among partner institutions.

We invite proposals for individual papers addressing any aspect of Anglo-American Studies. We also welcome proposals for fully comprised panels of three or four papers and roundtable discussions.

The official language of the conference is English.

Please submit a 250-300-word abstract that can later be developed into a 15-20 minute presentation. The deadline for proposals is March 30, 2020. Proposals must be sent to the following address: earlycareers2020@gmail.com Please, indicate whether your paper belongs to Literature and Culture or Language and Linguistics in the subject of your email.

Acceptance will be notified by email by April 2020.
